3100,000 in the Linn & Scruggs Dry Goods and Carpet Co.

To-day through the attorney, I. D. Walker, the final incorporation papers for The Linn & Scruggs Dry Goods and Carpet Company, authorized to do business in Decatur, were received and filed at 10:30 a. m. for record in the recorder's office. The papers show that there are 1000 shares valued at $100 each and the stock holders are as follows:
W. H. Linn, $52,500
W. R. Scruggs, $47,500
Robert Morris, $1,000
J. S. Jones, $1,000
T. H. Blackstone, $1,000
THE OFFICERS.
President—W. H. Linn.
Secretary and Treasurer—W. S. Grubbs.
Directors—W. H. Linn, W. R. Scruggs, Robt. Morris, W. S. Grubbs, T. H. Blackstone and W. W. Linn.

The company, as will be seen at a glance, is made up of well-known business men of experience worthy to be at the head of such an important house—the house of Linn & Scruggs, which has been marching along at the head of the procession, since Decatur made a start on the road to greater prosperity and numerical growth 21 years ago.

The business of the company will be continued at the old quarters as heretofore. In a short time there will be an addition of another store room extending from Water to State streets, and the establishment will always be supplied with the best class of goods that can be had in the best markets at home or abroad.

A Costly Assault.

This afternoon on Water street Constable Dillehunt, who had an execution for something like $42 against Joseph Kretzer, of Harrisburg, presented it for payment. An altercation ensued in which Kretzer struck the constable twice in the face, whereupon Dillehunt caught Kretzer by the neck and had him down when Constables Midkiff and Bailey stopped the fight. Kretzer was fined $20 and costs, for resisting an officer, by Justice Prescott. He was also fined on a city warrant for assault. Dillehunt had Justice Curtis issue a warrant for Kretzer for assault to kill. The trial will occur later. Dillehunt was up for assault. Decision later.

THE LONG OREK FATALITY.
Inquests on the Bodies of Stone and Hines—The Horses.

This forenoon after some delay Coroner Bendure at the Parl place resumed the inquest on the body of George A. Stone, of Galesburg, who with James Hines, of Greensburg, Ind., were instantly killed Thursday afternoon near Long Creek in the rear-end collision on the L. D. & W. road. The delay was caused by the non-arrival of the railway officials and the members of the freight train crews. R. B. Pierce, of Indianapolis, the managing trustee for the road, Supt. Boyd, were present, with Agent Dorwin, the engineers, firemen, conductors and brakemen. The train men testified to substantially the same stories already related in these columns. The fact that the train of 21 loads had backed up to make the grade was admitted, and the evidence was elaborate on the point that the accident occurred in the midst of a driving rain storm, the wind blowing a hurricane. Brakeman Bowman said when his train backed up he ran back with a flag half a quarter to a quarter of a mile to flag the extra train of 10 loads, which was running at about 12 miles an hour when he met it. He thought the engineer saw him through the rain and that an effort was made to stop the train. He said the accident could not have occurred if it had not been raining so hard. The rain made it difficult to see very far ahead. The trains started out 50 minutes apart. There is no denial of the results of the accident. The testimony of the other witnesses gave the same state of facts varied slightly.

THE VERDICT.

The verdict of the jury in the Stone case was rendered at 2:30 p. m. to-day. It was that he came to his death by accident in the collision during the severe wind and rain storm, and further that because of the rain and wind the train men are not to blame.

Yesterday afternoon the Coroner selected Ed Leech, B. N. Adams, W. B. Newell, J. H. Montgomery, Starr Cool and E. S. McCarty to serve as a jury at the inquest on the body of James Hines and they viewed the remains at Bullard's place before they were placed in a coffin and expressed to Greensburg for interment. The testimony of Bob Williams, the colored hostler, and others will be heard this afternoon. A verdict in the Hines case may be reached this evening.

THE HORSES.

This morning Buck Dickerson arrived from Greensburg with the I. D. & W. colts. It was by his direction that Hines was sent home. Mr. Dickerson was greatly shocked to learn of the accident to his man and horse. Hines, he said, was the only support of a widowed mother and brother and what they will do now he was unable to tell. He knew nothing about Stone. He had no connection with his stock or men, and was killed in the caboose. Bob Williams said he didn't know that Stone was on the train and had not talked with him.

Mr. Dickerson found his horses, Reality and Tyro, at the Brannenman & Watt stables. As yet they are in charge of the I. D. & W. company, who undertook to deliver them safely at their destination. Mr. Dickerson believes that Reality is seriously hurt. He doesn't think she will trot again this season and may never be able to do so. He added that if the I. D. & W. company is responsible the road will be compelled to pay full damages.

Declared Insane.

In the county court this forenoon Mary McGinty, aged 17, daughter of Hannah McGinty, of East Eldorado street, was adjudged insane; cause, la grippe. The juryman were Charles E. Peake, H. D. Heil, Milton Bivans, I. W. Ehrman, H. F. Dillehunt, Harry Fisk, E. H. Jeffers, W. A. Conba, J. Q. A. Olor, Eljah Hampton, H. M. Bragg and Samuel Green. In February a brother of Mary was adjudged insane.

ONE of the electric trains, one that had two motor cars and three dinkies, came in from the race track last evening with 300 people on board. The Citizens' electric plant had the severest test possible during the week and it stood it well.

INCREASED pension of from $8 to $10 per month for Gordon Erwin, city, and a Mexican War pension of $8 and arrears for Wm. S. Ishmael, of Warrenburg, have been allowed through the agency of O. R. Spore.

This forenoon Blind Boone, the champion pianist, who appeared at Stapp's Chapel last night, and will be heard at the African M. E. Church to-night, was enjoying himself in the shade on South Main street. Seated in a chair Boone had a bevy of little girls about him and he was chatting with them like a father. He loves children and they gather about him wherever he goes. Boone has a watch set with diamonds worth $650 made for him in Switzerland. He can tell the time by it accurately, although he is blind. By touching a spring a musical ball in the works will strike the hour, the quarter and the minute.
